Racing Form

VOL. VI. NO. 1.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ST. LOUIS STAKES.

The stake events to be decided at the Fair Grounds during the racing season of 1900 show several variations in distance from former years. The Turf Congress Stake for two-year-olds, six furlongs, with $2,000 added, of which $1,000 is added by the American Turf Congress, should be worth about $3,500.

The Mound City Selling Stake, for three-year-olds and upward, formerly at one and one-eighth miles, is for six and one-half furlongs. The Meramec Selling Stakes, for three year-olds and upward, has been changed from one mile to one mile and seventy yards. The Junior Champion Stakes, for two-year-olds, has been changed from five and one-half furlongs to six furlongs.

The Chrysanthemum, Czark and Autumn Selling Stakes have been eliminated and ten new stakes, including the Turf Congress Stakes, added to the list. It is the intention to run these stakes during the latter part of the meeting. Four are for two-year-olds and six for all-aged horses, and have a guaranteed value of $1,000 each.

With the exception of the St. Louis Derby for 1901, all the stakes have a fixed sum guaranteed. The association adds $5,000 to the Derby for 1901. It is estimated that this stake will be worth over $10,000. The association also pledges itself to add not less than $1,000 to the Inaugural, $1,200 to the Club Members' Handicap, $800 to the Debutante, Kindergarten, Memorial, Brewers', Mississippi Valley, Meramec, Laurel, Missouri, Independence, Golden Rod and Mound City, and $600 to the St. Francois, Press, New Century, Nimrod, Coronation, Juvenile, Midsummer and Boulevard.

The W. J. Lamp is the only stake in the entire list that has a fixed sum pledged to it by the association. The Coronation, which is a handicap for two-year-olds at a mile, will take the place of the Chrysanthemum, the conditions of which were almost practically similar to those of the Coronation.

The New Century will doubtless prove a popular event. It is to be contested over a distance of two and one-eighth miles. It will take conditioned horses of stamina to negotiate this route.

The list of stakes offered is as follows:

Inaugural, one mile, three-year-olds and upward, $2,000.

Debutante, four and one-half furlongs, two-year-old fillies, $1,500.

Kindergarten, five furlongs, two year-old colts and geldings, $1,500.

Junior Championship, six furlongs, two-year-olds, $2,000.

Memorial, five and one-half furlongs, all ages, $1,500.

Club Members' Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, three-year-olds and upward, $2,500.

Brewers', six furlongs, two-year-olds, $1,500.

Mississippi Valley, one mile, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Meramec, one mile and seventy yards, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Laurel, six furlongs, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Missouri, six furlongs, two-year-olds, $1,500.

Independence, one and three-sixteenth miles, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Mound City, six and one-half furlongs, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500.

Golden Rod, seven furlongs, three-year-olds, $1,500.

Turf Congress, six furlongs, two-year-olds, $2,000.

St. Francois, six furlongs, all ages, $1,000.

The Press, one-half furlongs, all ages, $1,000.

The New Century, two and one-eighth miles, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000.

W. J. Lamp Brewing Company, six furlongs, two-year-olds, $1,000.

The Nimrod, six furlongs, all ages, $1,000.

The Coronation, one mile, two-year-olds, $1,000.

The Juvenile, six furlongs, two-year-olds, $1,000.

Midsummer Handicap, one mile, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000.

Tho Boulevard, one mile and seventy yards, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Lester Reiff, the American jockey, who recently returned from England, says the English jockeys are now riding "Yankee" style. Says Reiff: "The English jockeys have changed their tactics a great deal since I was over there a few years ago. They have all, more or less, shortened their stirrup leathers and ride closer to a horse than formerly. They now crouch in the American style over their horses' withers.

"They are more alert at the post, too. One can't slip away from them at the start and get a running lead any more. They are up to that game now. Heretofore they would pull their horse up and begin to wait with him almost immediately the flag fell. Now they are just as quick and alert to take an advantage as the 'Yanks'.

"It is a pleasure to ride among them. They are all artists and know how to ride. They can keep a horse straight, and there is little or no rough riding indulged in. As a class they are superior to the jockeys in this country at present; but I believe six years ago America had the best collection of jockeys in any land."

Here are the names and breeding of a partial list of the two-year-olds Mr. Marcus Daly will probably campaign over the New York tracks this year:

The institution of this great stake and of the Western Produce Stakes at Tanforan constitute a distinct and valuable advance in American racing, the broadening of a new and flourishing field into national instead of sectional importance. Henceforth the breeders of Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Texas, Illinois and the eastern states will consider the California offerings with the interest and care that has heretofore been monopolized by the stakes offered by the racing organizations of the east and middle west.

P. Tomlinson has received a draft of yearlings from the Avondale stock farm of E. S. Gardner, of Gallatin, Tenn. Included in the lot are the following:

Sterling Silver, b. c. 2, by Quacklime—Sumatra, Maltese Cross, b. f. 2, by Quacklime—Monte Rosa. This colt is a half sister to Marquise.
Ida Quacklime, b. f. 2, by Quacklime—Ida Pickwick.

Belt, b. f. 2, by Quacklime—Bracelet. This is a half sister to that good horse Bangle.

Sam Andres, b. f. 2, by Quacklime—Soubrette.
Tomlinson is also handling Freak and Viscount for the Gardners.

Water Bottle and Vain Glory have been sent back to the farm to be turned out for the winter
—New Orleans Picayune.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. J. W. Colt has bought the really good horse Kris Kringle for $3,000, and he is likely to prove a cheap horse at the price. At his best he is a horse of great speed and can hold his own in almost any company. As is the case with most of the horses Mr. Colt acquires, Kris Kringle will be schooled over the jumps, and in time may be known as a crack among the timber-toppers.

S. Sanford & Son, proprietors of the Hurri-cana Stud of Amsterdam, N. Y., have purchased in England the following thoroughbred stallions for breeding purposes, which were shipped on the Marquette on Thursday:—Royal Emblem, by Hampton—Thistle; Gonsalo, by Fernandez—Cherie, by Stockwell; Grammont, by St. Simon—Marguerite, by the Duke.

Elizabeth Klein, the handsome full sister to Traverser, has grown considerably since she went into winter quarters. Hiram Pierce, Charley Patterson's brother-in-law, is training
the filly, and expects to win the Tennessee Oaks with her.

Algernon Daingerfield has bought from J. B.
Clay for Phil Dwyer the weanling black colt by Handspring—Mon Droit. This is the only weanling colt by Handspring, who was raced,
and is owned by Mr. Dwyer.

The California Jockey Club fields will hereafter be limited to twelve starters.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted.
The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors,
ruled and arranged for six generations of sires
and dams of individuals and their ancestor.
Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.

Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily; second the same. Uhler had nothing to bether him in such going. He ran over his field and won in a romp. Acushla did not show her usual speed and does not like mud. Junaetta's race was below the mark.
Overweights—Uhler, 11 pounds; Bright Night, 21; Mouszloff, 4; Colonel Eades, 11.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next three were driving. Loving Cup got away flying and was never headed, though Nora Ives drew up close to her directly after passing the half. Juva ran a good race and is likely to win before long. Nora Ives was poorly ridden and should have been second. The judges asked for an explanation. Modwena was speedy, but short. Braw Lass made up ground in the last quarter. Libertine ran poorly.

Scratched—16250 Grand Sachem, 115; 16216 Romany, 113; 16118 Ballista, 112; 16029 Spry Lark, 115.

Del Paso II. fancies a mile better than a longer route. He was well ridden. Chimura closed strongly. Coda showed speed. Cromwell is best in dry going. Owyhee was excused from starting as the betting began.

Scratched—16218 Tom Calvert, 105; 16218 Owyhee, 103.

Winner—B. c. by Buchanan—Espanita.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second handily. Cyril was at home in the going, showed the most speed and was taken the shortest route. Scotch Plaid ran a game race and was well ridden. He had no excuses. Wyoming was kept too far out of it to be able to get up in the stretch. Merops ran a poor race though he finished strongly. Merry Boy showed some speed for three-quarters but the going was against him.

Scratched—(16051) Racivan, 102; 16173 Laverary II., 99.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Potente got the rail easily. liked the going, was well ridden and may have been best. Imperious finished gamely under a strong ride. Morinel had too much weight up and it told at the end. The same can be said of Topmast. Daisy F. was bumped on the first turn and afterwards refused to extend herself.
